

I object to Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to require stations to air the anti-Kerry documentary, and even worse, just a few days before the election.

I thought this kind of thing would happen.

This standardized big-business approach to our local air does nothing to serve our local interests, and everything to promote big-business's interest in corporate tax cuts which are promoted by the Bush administration. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and should not be allowed to do this kind of electioneering over "our" airwaves.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
